Cradle to Career (C2C) is a long-term, systemic partnership to increase student success that engages individuals and organizations representing a cross-sector of the community. The goal of the work is to ensure that every young person in every neighborhood throughout Portland and Multnomah County achieves their full potential. C2C coordinates collaborative action rooted in data-driven decision-making and a commitment to continuous improvement. The Goals of C2C were established in 2010, and are that children and youth in Portland and Multnomah County will 1) be prepared for school, 2) be supported inside and outside of school, 3) succeed academically, 4) enroll in postsecondary education, and 5) complete a postsecondary

All Hands Raised (formerly the Portland Schools Foundation) is the managing partner of C2C in Portland and Multnomah County. A key part of our work to administer the Portland Public Schools Foundation and manage the PPS Equity Fund. Our mission is to champion education, equity and excellence inside and outside of the classroom. We mobilize leadership, ideas, resources and community action to ensure all kids in all neighborhoods throughout Portland and Multnomah County achieve their full potential.

3. Explain the fiscal impact (current year and ongoing).

None.

4. Explain any legal and/or policy issues involved.

None.

5. Explain any citizen and/or other government participation that has or will take place.

Cradle to Career is a broad coalition of leaders from all areas of the community. The County is one partner in achieving these goals.
