The Multnomah County Department of Community Justice (DCJ) is recognized as a national leader in both adult and juvenile community justice. We routinely consult and make use of evidence-based practices in our program and policy development. Our commitment to data-informed decision-making has led us to make smart investments of taxpayer dollars in supervision, sanctions and services for the county's highest risk and highest need offenders.

In preparation for the FY13 County Budget process, the Budget Office is providing opportunities for each department to provide an informational session to the board. In this session, DCJ will focus on our budget priorities and the anticipated challenges for this budget cycle. DCJ will be highlighting 1) the five department-wide goals outlined in our Strategic Plan, 2) our processes for assessing the risk levels of our client population, and 3) how the determination of risk levels affects the utilization of our organizational resources.
